H. W. ADOLPH, K. R. & S.

Word was received here Tuesday announcing the death that morning at Piedmont of Capt. R. A. Collins, a well known citizen of that town. The remains were taken to Higginsville, the deceased's old home for interment.

An interesting game of ball took place last Sunday between the soldier and Ironton teams, resulting in a score of 8 to 6 in favor of Ironton. There will be another game next Sunday, on the Ironton grounds, between the same teams.

Stuart Bros. merchants in Arcadia, last Friday made an assignment to James H. Clark for the benefit of their creditors. The firm had been in business about one year. No special reason is assigned for the failure.

The Pine Bluff Students' Comedy Company will appear at the Academy of Music Friday evening, May 23d. An entertaining programme is promised. Special attention is directed to Euwell Wightman, the wonderful buck and wing dancer of his age.

The Baptist ladies will give an apron and neckwear bazar at the Academy of Music Thursday afternoon and evening, May 22d. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, strawberries, cake and lemonade will be bountifully served. The ladies cordially solicit the patronage of all.

Part of the proceeds from the entertainment of the Pine Bluff Students' Comedy Co., Friday night, will be given to the colored church at this place. The company always plays for the benefit of charitable institutions, being founded by the Colored Industrial Institute of Pine Bluff, Ark.

The new Farmington asylum for the insane will be ready for occupancy by July 1, according to the announcement made recently by the board of commissioners to Gov. Dockery. Plans are already being formed for the removal of a large number of the mentally afflicted from the asylums at Fulton, St. Joseph and Nevada to Farmington, especially those whose former homes were in Southeast Missouri. The buildings now nearing completion will accommodate about 200 patients, while the ward for the incurable, on which bids will be asked at once, will give room for 150 more.

Mrs. Lulu Gilliam Woodside invites the ladies of the Valley who have made their purchases from her this spring, and all those who contemplate making their summer purchases from her, and her friends who have not and do not intend to purchase from anyone this season, to visit her millinery parlor next Wednesday afternoon, May 28, 1902, between two and five o'clock.

The 6 Trauerlicht brothers—Robert of Irondale; Wm., of Middlebrook; John, of Esther; Henry, Albert and Herman, of Farmington, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Johanna Trauerlicht, who was 76 years old last January, but is hale and hearty. She insisted on cooking dinner for the boys and it is needless to say it was a genuine old-time mother's dinner.—Farmington News.

A number of troops from the range came into town last Friday night and proceeded to get full. They got noisy on the street and the Marshal started to take them in. Eleven of them were locked up that night and the next morning four of them were found guilty by the Mayor for violating the city ordinances and fined $10 and costs each. Another was convicted before Squire Fairchild for resisting an officer and fined $10 and costs. All paid out except one by the name of O'Malley. He languishes in duance vile.

W. T. Gay and Mrs. M. A. Gay started to drive to Farmington last Friday morning. When they reached the railroad crossing just north of where the Pilot Knob depot used to be, the horse became frightened at a box car and turned over the buggy, throwing both occupants to the ground. Mrs. Gay was dragged quite a distance and badly bruised, but fortunately it is thought there will be no lasting ailment from the accident. Mr. Gay was not much hurt. A suit for damages will likely be instituted against the railroad company.

The stockholders of the Reynolds County Telephone Co. held a meeting at the office of Mr. Dobbins, the President of the company, on last Saturday, and among other business transacted it was voted to increase the capital stock $1000 for the purpose of extending the company's wires into other parts of the county. On Monday the Board of Directors met and decided to immediately commence the erection of a line from Lesterville, where it will connect with the main line, to Black, a distance of eight miles, they having enough money on hand to build this line. Mr. Dobbins informed us that it was the intention of the company to extend its Rose Hill line by way of McDoe and down Logan creek to Ellington, a distance of about 20 miles, as soon as possible.—Reynolds County Outlook.

In speaking of the passage of the Farris anti-trust insurance bill the Kansas City Times, April 7, 1899, said: "The people of Missouri have to-day beaten the richest, most powerful and most influential lobby that ever visited the state capital. It is a signal victory and one that will make its influence felt far beyond the confines of Missouri. By a vote of 75 to 44 the house passed the Farris bill which extends the provisions of the present anti-trust law to the insurance trusts. Not since the days of the constitutional convention has there been such a battle between the people and the lobby. Inch by inch, step by step, the trust and its hired lobbyists have been beaten back. Inch by inch step by step, the Farris bill has been carried through the maze of committees and the various stages through which a bill must pass, until to-day came the culmination—the passage of the bill." This Farris bill is now a law.

The Silver Jubilee of the Arcadia College and Ursuline Academy will be celebrated next Sunday and Monday. There will be an excursion from St. Louis Sunday, and it is generally understood that, owing to the capacity of the hall, that day will be devoted to the visitors from a distance. Dinner will be served in the college grounds, and a drama and concert be given in the Concert Hall. Another programme will be given Monday, when it is hoped that all the people of the Valley and vicinity will be present. The occasion will be a great success and everybody should make a special effort to be present. The drama to be given Sunday at 2 o'clock P. M., is entitled "The Crusades"; that on Monday, 7:30 P. M., is "Princess Florine," a tale of the first crusade. A fine concert will be given both days. Admission, 25c.

One of the prettiest and swiftest home weddings of the season was the marriage of Mr. W. B. Atkinson of De Soto, Mo., to Miss Dora M. Hitzman, of this city, last Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hitzman. The bride and groom came into the parlors attended by Miss Jennie Atkinson, of De Soto, as bridesmaid and Mr. Julius G. Hitzman as groomsmen. The bride looked charming in her dress of steel gray silk, the groom wearing the conventional black. The bridal party entered the parlor to the soul stirring strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Dora Atkinson, sister of the groom. Father J. J. Toomey, of Farmington, met them there and performed the marriage ceremony. After the marriage the young couple received congratulations and the good wishes of their many friends, the wedding party were then invited to the dining room where a dainty and elaborate luncheon was served. After the luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson took the afternoon train for De Soto, where they will make their future home.—The New Democrat Sun.

Assignee's Notice.

Notice is hereby given to all creditors of Stuart Bros., of Arcadia, Iron county, Mo., that I will, on the 28th day of July, 1902, at the office of Wm. R. Edgar, in the city of Ironton, and county of Iron, proceed publicly to adjust and affect demands against the estate and assets assigned to me by Stuart Bros. for the benefit of creditors, and will continue said hearing the two following days.

JAMES H. CLARK,

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant spanking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

First R. R. Excursion to Arcadia.

Only $1.25 for the round trip, Sunday, May 25, 1902, via the Iron Mountain route. Train leaves Union Station 8:30 A. M., arrive Arcadia 11:50 A. M., returning, leave Arcadia 6:30 P. M., arrive St. Louis 9:40 P. M., stopping at Iron Mountain, Middlebrook, Pilot Knob and Ironton, Mo.

Road Appropriations.

Ed. Register.—In the statement of disbursement of road funds for 1901, Road District No. 10 is charged with $188.09, whereas all warrants drawn in this district amount to only $138.25, according to the clerk's and road-overseer's books. Would like the County Court to explain where the balance was spent, and for what?

Yours truly,

THOS. HILL, Roadoverseer.

Wm. Edgar, Clerk.
To roadoverseer, $47.25, for work April 25, 1901; for tools, $13.00; to roadoverseer, $57.50 for work June 14th and August 12th; to commissioner and clerk $15, Dec. 22, 1901; to commissioner $2.75, Dec. 7, 1901; to commissioner $2.75, Dec. 10, 1901; total, $138.25.

[There are two warrants not included in above statement: One to Thos. Hill, Feb. 2, 1901, for $30.84; and one to Andy Sueahan, March 30, 1901, for $10. These we find on record in the office of the County Clerk.—Ed.]

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After 14 Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

We are needing rain for corn, etc., but the wheat crop is better so far than ever known in this county. E. W. Graves will make a thousand bushels of thirty acres of ground, sowed with a drill and home meal feed. I had the pleasure of visiting Farmington last week. There has been over eighty new houses built in the last twelve months, and some are fine dwellings. Mrs. Josie Mason has a beautiful home built in the suburbs of the town, also Mr. Joe Williams. I was agreeably surprised to see the toll-gates removed as I drove over in my buggy. Dirt is too cheap to pay toll on in Missouri. I did not have the pleasure of calling on our friend Mr. Fisher who edits the best paper in that county—the daily not excepted. I understand, however, that he is a Robb man. Sorry to hear it, for he only wants to vote for Dearing to be the best man in the county. The merchants at Farmington are doing a fine business. Morris Bros. sold over $4,200 last month and $500 last Saturday.

Not more than half the seed came up that Robb sent down here. It is like Robb—has been in the office too long. Carson Phillips, brother-in-law of J. M. Morris, of Essex county, Va., near Rappahannock, visited him last week. He reports that eastern Virginia has improved wonderfully in the last few years, especially around Norfolk. He says the farmers in Virginia are raising tomatoes and English peas in large quantities, some of them having thirty acres in one field. They have three canning factories in his county. He left Farmington to visit his brother in northern Missouri. I attended the new Southern M. E. Church last Sunday. It is one of the finest churches in Southeast Missouri; one window cost $500, donated by a lady from the east. I also attended a mass meeting of the Democrats of Farmington, and I never saw so much ransling and disorder. If the Democrats don't get together by fall the county will go Republican. I also visited Flat River, and going over I met 53 vehicles going and coming to Farmington. That is the liveliest country I ever saw. I spent the day with my friend Jack Norwine, formerly a merchant at Des Arc. He is doing a fine business with his large store. I also called on the Grand Leader (Dave Reese and the Zwartz boys). They were so busy they did not have time to talk to me—had to tell what they had to say on the fly. Their new building is about completed, and will be the finest store in Farmington. They will have a cashier, money basket, telephone, etc. H. Ward shipped 90 hogs from here to-day, and Monroe School 119, all fine stock.

The Methodist Sunday School at this place will have Children's Day exercises, at the church, next Sunday morning.

Rev. T. A. Bowman will preach at the Baptist church the first Sunday in June.

The Woodmen at this place will give an ice cream and strawberry festival at the hall, on the 31st of May. Walter Strother of Irondale is at work here, with four men, building a cottage for Ray Stamp. Walter has another crew of men working at Irondale. He is an up-to-date carpenter and contractor.

Mrs. W. E. McKee is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. O'Neal, at Mill Springs this week.

Mrs. Clara Holt is visiting her parents near Brunot this week.

Miss Lizzie Black returned Sunday from Ironton.

L. Meadows returned to Louisiana Sunday, after a few days' visit with his aunt, Mrs. Chas. Williams.

Dave Gibson and wife spent Sunday with relatives at this place.

Mrs. Ed. Reed was the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Myers, last week.

Mrs. T. P. Fitz, accompanied by her sister, Master Carson Morris, returned home Sunday from Farmington. P. D. Barman and wife returned to Des Arc last week. ISAAC.

STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
COUNTY OF IRON.

On this 10th day of May, 1902, before me, Wm. R. Edgar, a notary public within and for the county of Iron and State of Missouri, personally appeared Frank Fitzpatrick, who, being duly sworn upon his oath, states that at the general election in the fall of 1900, I voted the straight Democratic ticket from top to bottom. All statements made to the contrary are false, absolutely false, and made as I verily believe, to injure me in my race for County Judge. I am a Democrat, and have voted that ticket since reaching my majority in 1890.

FRANK FITZPATRICK.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of May, 1902.

WM. R. EDGAR,
